

NWU CULTURE INTEGRATION DAY

26 SEP
2025

Happening at all
NWU campuses

The Culture Integration Day seeks to reinforce the NWU's institutional values and civility agenda, whilst promoting a cross-cultural understanding and mutual respect. The day also aims at encouraging active participation in shaping a positive institutional culture and creating a unifying annual event across the university's multi-campus structure

The day will feature a vibrant programme of competitions and activities designed to showcase and celebrate the NWU's diversity, including:

- Celebrations of diverse NWU cultures
- A cultural fashion show
- Poetry performances
- Dance competitions
- Music showcases
- Cultural stalls representing different traditions
- Indigenous games from various backgrounds
- Traditional cuisines and signature dishes
- uMshado wase Res

Other activities for the September Heritage month include:

- Giving week 1-5 September
- Purple Walk 5 September
- Casual Day 5 September
- Language Awareness Week 22-26 September
- Tree Planting (5 September: Mahikeng)
(26 September: Potchestroom and Vanderbijlpark)
